Partnership for Conflict, Crime & Security Research

Increasing Impact through Creative Arts Collaborations

A PaCCS Policy Late Event
University of Bath, Level 6, 83 Pall Mall, London SW1Y 5ES

6 February 2019 | 18:00 – 20:30

Collaborations between researchers and creative arts practitioners are increasingly being used for development, transitional justice, and reconciliation in post-war countries. This Policy Late Event aims to bring together artists, researchers, and policy makers to exchange experiences about these collaborations.

1800 Wine and Nibbles Reception

1830 Welcome from Dr Tristram Riley-Smith, PaCCS TNOC Research Integrator

1835 Introductions

- Dr Hetty Blades – Coventry University
- Dr Lars Waldorf – University of Dundee

1845 Sharing Experiences

(Theories of Change, Methodologies and Impact). Panel of speakers:

- Dr Melissa Blanco Borelli - Royal Holloway, University of London
- Kate Carroll - ActionAid
- Dr Pilar Domingo - Overseas Development Institute
- Helen Duffy - AHRC
- Dr Tiffany Fairey - King's College London
- Dr Rachel Kerr - King's College London
- Rosanna Lewis - British Council
- Dr Peter Manning - University of Bath

1945 Break-Out Groups and Report Back

Separate break-out groups to discuss theories of change, methodologies, and impact.

2030 Close